About the College

Nestled in the serene lap of the majestic Dhauladhar ranges, S.C.V.B. Government College stands as a veritable sanctuary of learning where tradition and modernity walk hand in hand. Renowned for its academic vibrancy and holistic ethos, the institution has long been a crucible for intellectual growth, character formation, and cultural enrichment. With a steadfast commitment to excellence, it fosters a spirit of inquiry, encouraging students and scholars alike to push beyond the beaten track and explore uncharted horizons of knowledge. The college derives its name from the legendary son of Palampur, Captain Vikram Batra (PVC), whose immortal valour and supreme sacrifice continue to inspire generations, imbuing the institution with a spirit of courage, patriotism, and unwavering dedication. True to its ethos, the college keeps the flame of education alive, nurturing minds that are not only informed but also enlightened, ready to meet the challenges of an ever-evolving world.

About ICSSR

The Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), established in 1969 under the aegis of the Government of India, stands as a beacon of intellectual inquiry and scholarly excellence in the realm of social sciences. With an unwavering commitment to nurturing a vibrant research culture, the Council has, over the decades, carved a niche for itself by promoting rigorous scholarship, fostering interdisciplinary dialogue, and building bridges between academia and policy-making. Through its generous grants, fellowships, and sponsorship of seminars and conferences, ICSSR has consistently provided a fertile ground where ideas take root and flourish. Acting as a catalyst for critical thought and meaningful discourse, it continues to keep the lamp of knowledge burning bright. Its support for the present two-day national conference is yet another testament to its steadfast endeavour to bring together minds that matter, spark illuminating conversations, and address the pressing socio-cultural and developmental concerns of our times with insight, depth, and academic rigour.

About the Conference

“Indian Knowledge Systems: A Multi-disciplinary Perspective for Sustainable Futures” seeks to weave together the rich tapestry of India’s intellectual heritage with the pressing demands of contemporary sustainability. This two-day national conference provides a vibrant stage for scholars, academicians, and thinkers to delve deep into the timeless wisdom embedded in Indian knowledge traditions and reinterpret it through a modern, multidisciplinary lens. By bringing diverse perspectives under one roof, the conference endeavors to spark meaningful dialogue, sow the seeds of innovation, and chart pathways towards a more sustainable and harmonious future. It aspires not merely to revisit the past, but to harness its enduring insights in shaping a resilient and forward-looking world order.

Objectives of the Conference

- To revisit and rearticulate the profound legacy of Indian Knowledge Systems, situating their timeless wisdom within the pressing concerns of the contemporary world.
- To interrogate and illuminate the role of Indian intellectual traditions in envisioning sustainable, ethical, and harmonious futures.
- To provide an intellectually fertile platform for the presentation of innovative research, fostering creativity and scholarly excellence.
- To nurture academic networks and collaborative engagements that extend beyond the confines of the conference.
- To reflect upon the policy relevance of Indian Knowledge Systems in shaping education, governance, environment, and societal well-being.
- To celebrate and disseminate India’s rich cultural and intellectual heritage, inspiring renewed engagement among scholars and young minds alike.
