

Report on Participation in National Seminar on NEP 2020

Venue: CSIR – Bhatnagar Auditorium, Palampur

Dates: June 26–27, 2025

The Department of Music, SCVB Government College, Palampur, actively participated in a Two-Day National Seminar on the theme:

“Implementation of NEP 2020: Multi-Disciplinary Learning and Technical Terminology in Regional Languages,” organized by SCVB Government College, Palampur, under the aegis of the Commission for Scientific and Technical Terminology, Ministry of Education, Department of Higher Education. The seminar was hosted at the CSIR – Bhatnagar Auditorium, Palampur.

The seminar focused on key provisions of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, including the promotion of regional languages, technical terminology, and interdisciplinary learning in higher education.

The Department of Music contributed significantly to the cultural segments of the event:

- Students of the department opened the programme with soulful renditions of Vande Mataram and Saraswati Vandana, setting a respectful and traditional tone.

- Ms. Deepali Verma, a student, performed a well-received presentation in Indian Classical Music.

- Dr. Ravinder Thakur, Assistant Professor (Music – Vocal), delivered a moving Ghazal performance, appreciated for its emotional depth and musical finesse.

- Dr. Amarjeet Singh, Assistant Professor Music Instrumental presented a folk song, representing the cultural vibrancy and diversity of India's musical traditions.

The active participation of the Department of Music added a rich aesthetic dimension to the academic proceedings and reflected the holistic and culturally rooted vision of education promoted by NEP 2020.
